

UK National Budget.

These figures are approximated figures taken from the government's "Blue Book" of national statistics.

Gross Expenditure.

UK GDP	£ 1,164 billion
(very, very, roughly this is how much is spent on goods and services in the UK per year)
(approx £19,000 per person)

Split Between.

Direct Household expenditure (Approx £30,000 per household)	£ 780 billion
and Government expenditure	£ 439 billion

Government Expenditure. (By departments)

Social security payments	£ 185 billion
Health	£ 82 billion
Education	£ 63 billion
General Public Services (What are these?)	£ 48 billion.
Defence	£ 32 billion
Economic Affairs (treasury)	£ 32
Public Order (Police, courts etc.) (Home office)	£ 30
Housing (Office of Dept Prime Minister?)	£ 8
Environmental Protection + other things (DEfRA)	£ 7
Recreation, Culture, Religion (culture)	£ 5

Environmental Budget.

Government receipts from environmental taxes	£ 35 billion
Government expenditure on environmental protection etc (This includes £0.5 billion on research)	£ 5.5 billion.

Other Environmentally Relevant Financial Figures.

Cost of 1 nuclear power station	c. £ 2 billion
Cost of 1000 nuclear power stations	c. £1,000 billion

Version 1. 4/11/05.